

Terms & Conditions Governing the Supplier Self-Service Portal

1. This is a self-maintained database / portal. Suppliers are responsible for the accuracy of information provided in their profile.
2. By providing its profile, each Supplier is consenting to receive electronic communications from MBLL for business and related commercial purposes .
3. Suppliers are responsible for ensuring that their electronic mail system is configured to allow messages from MBLL to pass to the intended recipients.
4. Suppliers are deemed to have been notified of opportunities when such notification is sent to the contact provided by the Supplier in its profile. MBLL is not responsible for notifying Suppliers by any other means in the event that electronic mail is returned as undeliverable for any reason outside the control of MBLL.
5. Suppliers are not guaranteed to receive any contracts, agreements or business as a result of creating a profile.
6. MBLL reserves the right to issue opportunities to Suppliers, or to notify Suppliers of opportunities that have not created a profile.
7. MBLL reserves the right, in certain circumstances, to work directly with Suppliers. Specifically, MBLL may contact Suppliers directly to discuss a business opportunity in instances where goods or services are available directly from the manufacturer, are proprietary, or are required for compatibility or continuity with existing goods or services.
8. The use of the Supplier Self Service Portal is governed by the Laws of the Province of Manitoba.
